

Biblical Knowledge Awards Ceremony 2005

By now fellow reader we are looking back at the many successes of the Biblical Knowledge 2005 season, and I am sure we are looking forward to many more like it in the future.

When asked if she enjoyed this season of Biblical Knowledge, 14 year old Sharon Sidbury tentatively responded. “It was pretty good and I am looking forward to it next year.” This season’s competition was a bit more challenging than last season. Nine-year-old Precious Watts was quite the little spokeswoman, “It was very challenging and fun.”

In light of the first two seasons of Biblical Knowledge, and every summer even included in season #2 I’m sure we’ve been feeling the impact as we all careered headlong into Jan. the 28th.

This also happens to be our 2nd and best awards ceremony to date. Sharon Sidbury, one of Bk.’s shining stars and a member of the team comments, “I think I could gradually see the program as a nation wide venture.” Her fellow “Eye of Christ” team member Precious supported her, “It will be very interesting to see the competition increase as more youth get involved.” Seeing God’s vision unfold in us was captivating. I think both ladies speak for all of us as we anticipate such an expansion, but I have to close using our beloved Oscar Jordan, (one of our youth coordinators) words from the ceremony. He said, “Jesus left a commission to all those that bare witness to our Savior. We have a whole world of young people to lead, guide, and transform in these last days. May the Lord’s work be done quickly, efficiently, in decency, and in order. Amen.”
